Initially identified by Atlanta Antifascists, Simon Dickerman is an outspoken fascist, and white supremacist activist. [8] He showed up in the news initially in 2016, rallying in support of Trump at multiple events in Florida, prior to election [1][2]. Simon was an active participant in the deadly Unite the Right rally in Charlottesville, VA, attended the White Lives Matter rally in Shelbyville, TN (10/28/2017) and a flash mob / white nationalist protest at Burnette Chapel in Antioch, TN the following day.[7][8] His activity in the White Supremacist community, especially online, continues today.

Simon (22) is getting married.[14.1-14.9] His soon to be spouse Alyssa Cordelia Elrod (turned 18 in May 2019) is also an outspoken bigot.

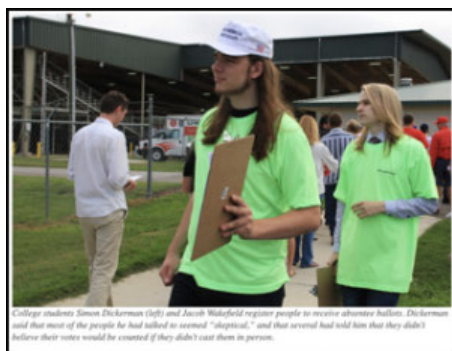

Early Activism: Trump 2016

Another student, Simon Dickerman, said he was voting for Mr. Trump. He volunteered that he frequently visited 4chan, an online message board where users compete with one another to post ever more provocative content, from Nazi shorthand to racist cartoons.

Mr. Dickerman said he understood why such images bothered some older people, though they carried little such charge to him and his friends.

“Of course they don’t actually want Jews to die,” Mr. Dickerman said. “They want to shock.” His peers, he added, “are kids who don’t really know about the Holocaust.”

College students Simon Dickerman (left) and Jacob Wolfeld register people to receive absentee ballots. Dickerman said that most of the people he had talked to seemed “sleepy,” and that several had told him that they didn’t believe their votes would be counted if they didn’t cast them in person.

“And they don’t care about history,” he said. “And some of them think it’s funny.”

Dickerman showed up at two rallies that are still available through general web searches. One in Ocala, Florida [1] per the Washington Post, and the one mentioned above

“The Jews are scared”: Simon attends “Unite The Right”

Simon helped hype Unite The Right through creation of memetics and claims to have personally attended along with a group. While there’s a ton of posts in his Discord logs, This one is particularly striking in the sense that Simon approached attending Unite the Right espousing anti-semitism.[6.1]

He talks at length in the logs about attending, and based on being identified at several other out of state events, it makes sense that he would have been there.

The post from his fiancée of Simon, tiki torch in hand, would indicate he also was there on 8/11/17 at the torch rally where chants of “Jews Will Not Replace Us” and “Blood and Soil” are still very fresh and painful in so many folks’ mind due to both the hate, and tragic loss of life the following day. He can also be seen pictured next to neo-Nazi Chris Cantwell.

Simon’s anti-semitism has not slowed down, based on his online activity. It appears he is accelerating.

Simon appears to be very aware of the potential legal implications from involvement at Unite the Right. In Discord posts he comments about (Jeff) Sessions, the FBI and DOJ investigating “us” (his affiliations) for domestic terrorism. He comments about the potential of being “Waco’d”. He warns those in the Charlottesville Discord channel to be “extremely careful”.

Acceleration: Charlottesville 3.0 & Afterward

Simon accompanied a group in October 2017 who showed up in Charlottesville, VA to re-enact the torch-march from less than two months prior. He appears in a New York Times documentary of Eliot Kline AKA Eli Mosley, along with Richard Spencer and other notable Identity Evropa fascists.[4]

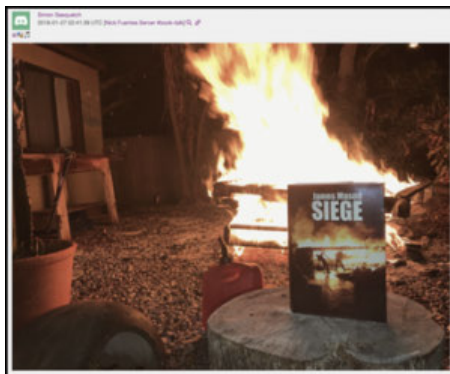

Simon was also identified by journalists & researchers (M.E.Hayden, ATL Antifascists, etc...) as creating and posting a video of a flashmob at a church in Tennessee. [7][8] He posted an article he was identified in from IGD News, seemingly thumbing his nose at being identified as some sort of bragging rights.

Simon posted a link to “our best episode” of a podcast hosted by Mike “Enoch” Peinovich’s “The Right Stuff” about the Alabama Lolicon.[6.1]

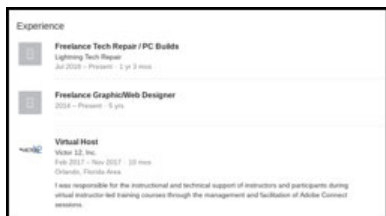

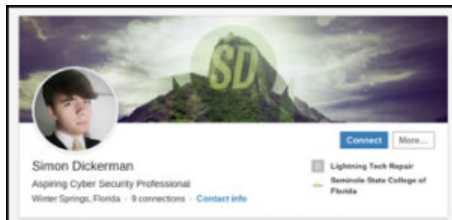

Simon has a clear understanding of memetics and how to use visual representations to make impact. His post in discord of James Mason’s “SIEGE”; a book known today as violent, neo-Nazi accelerationist reading material is accompanied by a gas can, next to a raging fire. Disconcerting at best.

This appears to be around the time he first caught the eye of Nick Fuentes. Soon afterward, Simon became the designer and site admin for Fuentes’ America First Merch and Right Wing Makes.

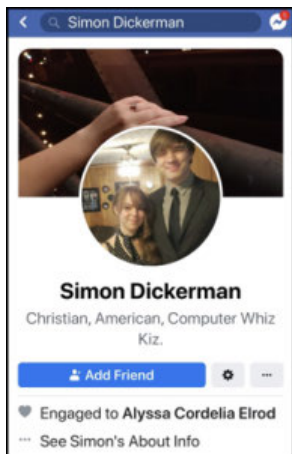

Simon continues to make memes with the Black Sun (Sonnenrad) in the background (a neo-nazi symbol), a “cleansing” of the earth message, and continued anti-semitic posts (e.g. hyping Papa John’s and their founder made anti-semitic statements his career at Papa John’s wouldn’t recover from).

Professional Life: Cyber, Network & Information Security

As previously reported, Simon attended Winter Springs High School, Seminole State College and the University of Central Florida in Orlando. His specialties are listed as Cyber Security, Computer Security, Network Security, Photoshop, Windows Server and HTML.

Similar skills are advertised on Simon’s Facebook profile.

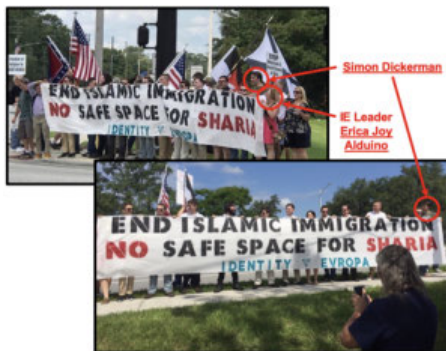

This is important to note, as Simon’s connections to groups like Identity Evropa (now the American Identity Movement) put these skills in high demand.

Careers in Information Technology, depending can provide potentially violent racists with access to personally identifiable information, not just in the private sector, but also in Law Enforcement and/or the Military

Connections: Personalities & Hate Groups

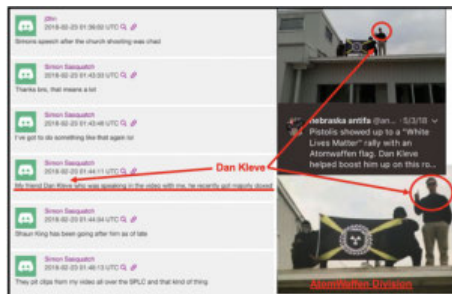

“March Against Sharia” June 10, 2017, Orlando, FL [3]. Simon can be see pictured with Identity Evropa Florida Coordinator and UTR planner Erica Joy Alduino (Identify Evropa & Asheville Anti-Racism) [10] along with members of fascist, Neo-Confederate hate group The League of the South. The Proud Boys were also in attendance.

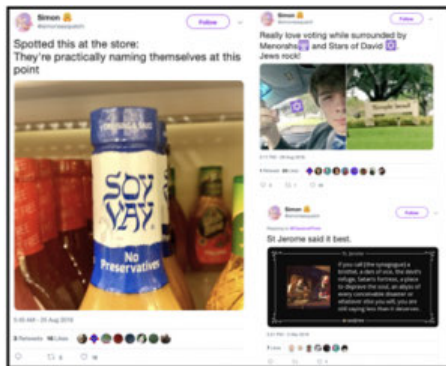

Simon is pictured, at AmRen 2018 (4/27-29), along-side fascist podcaster Nick Fuentes.

Simon’s anti-semitic comments & images are present throughout his posting career, down to posting pictures when tweets reach 88 likes/RTs.

Simon and his fiancée, Alyssa Cordelia Elrod

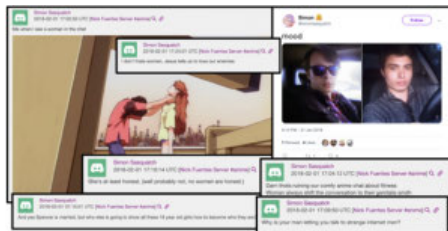

Simon’s fiancée just turned 18 in May. Since at least the age of 16 she has been engaged in increasingly bigoted, hateful behavior and has adapted her appearance to what appears to mirror anime memes. As Simon and Alyssa both have connection with the Anime Right, the relationship and her increasing visibility are more pertinent by the day.

Below, you can see some of Alyssa’s hateful tweets, as well as connections to alt-right trolls, mention of the AnimeRight, and reminder of their upcoming wedding, October 12th, 2019 in Brooksville, Florida [14.1-14.8]

Simon and his Incel-like disdain for women

Simon shows hatred and disdain for women through his posts. He also seems to idolize Incel mass-murderer Elliott Rodgers in some of his posts.

Combine his hatred of Jews, neo-Nazi / White Supremacists beliefs and friends, and “Siege” mentality? The result appears an embodiment of what the alt-right is doing to children. Simon was just 18 years old when he surfaced in 2016. His fiancée turned 18 in May 2019.

TO FASCISTS

t s way past time for discussion Oppressive beliefs are not "differences in political ideals" they are differences in moral ideals Speech against marginalized groups is the inciting of violence so we treat your speech as violence The government cannot speak out against you for speech but we can in our own way
